Hongkong, December 1, 1888. MOORE'S GOGO SHAMPOO

WASH.

BEST PREPARATION EVER PEE-BENTED TO THE PUBLIC. ...

HE Bases of this compound is made of Gogo Root. The natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; you never see them bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By using this SHAMPOO WASH as directed, you will never be bald. The Proprietor offers the Wash to the public, being entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will surely arrest decaying hair, completely cradicate scurf, dandruff, and cure all discases of the scalp; it does not contain any poisonous drugs, but, by its cooling properties allays the itching and fever of the scalp. Mr. Moore has succeeded in being able to put this Wesh up in bottles without allowing it to forment, and he will guarantee It to keep any length of time in any climate. CAMPBELL, MOORE & Co., Lcd.,

A CONGREGATIONAL social meeting was held in Union Church yesterday evening. Rev. G. H. Bondfield, the Pastor, presided, and there was a large attendance. The choir, which has made excellent progress under the leadership of Mr George L. Duncan, sang two anthems and two partsongs, and solos were rendered by some of the members. Mr Powell presided at the organ. and played several soles. Several short speeches were made during the evening. Rev. Mr Bondfield, in the course of an address, expressed himself as highly gratified with the success of the gathering. The attendance, he said, was very encouraging | Councils. The number of seatholders had been augmented very considerably, and altogether he thought they might congratulate themselves on a distinct advance, an advance which he hoped the Comwho had the burden of finance other burdens on their consider satisfactory. would Another matter for congratulation was the thoroughly representative character of the congregation. If they wanted to realise the highest form of church life they must not bring into the church the distinctions of society. They must have unity and a hearty feeling of brotherhood. That was the chief object of such meetings as the present. He was very glad to see so large a number of young men in the congregation, and regarded this as one of the most satisfactory features of the present condition of the church. He urged upon the congregation, however, the consideration of the question whether they were doing as much in the way of Christian work as they might not take a greater interest in mission work and exert a larger influence on the at present great mass of outsiders. He had come to think recently, too, that it might be their duty to establish a Sunday school in connection with the church, and this was a . matter which he hoped they would take into consideration. In conclusion he thanked the members of the congregation for the great kindness and sympathy they had always shown to him and the encouragment which he derived therefrom .- Rev. T. R. The Attorney General moved the firs reading of a bill to amend the Reformatory Schools Ordinance, 1886. He said provision was made for sending certain classes of children to Reformatory Schools by Ordinance 19 of 1886, but it had been considered desirable to amend that ordinance in the sense of making provisions under which in certain cases, parents should be made liable to support their children instead of their being supported by Government.

At the suggestion of Captain Deane, the words on and after the passing of this Ordinance ' were deleted.

To the section giving the power to one Magistrate to deal with the cases that have hitherto come before two, the Attorney General moved a short amendment. He said—I have heard the objection urged that it is a strong measure to place in the hands of a single magistrate the power to dispose of cases and sentence to imprisonment up to a term of two years. I think there is a great deal to be said in favour of that view, and it would perhaps be as well as a precaution to add words to the following effect,- In all cases in which the The Acting Colonial Treasurer—As one as it stood, and that the power given to one magistrate to pass a sentence of two years imprisonment is rather excessive.

The amendment was agreed. With regard to the section dealing with hawkers, Captain Deane suggested that instead of the words 'causing any obstruction by hawking in a public thoroughfare, be enbetituted the words ' by selling warca.' He said there was some doubt as to the meaning of the word hawker." it being hold by some that a hawker was only one who carried about his wares for sale, and that those who had stalls on the street were not hawking.
